DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-29 are pending. Claims 11-29 are withdrawn from consideration as being drawn to a non-elected invention.
2. Pursuant to Applicant's December 16, 2003 Amendment and associated REMARKS, the previous rejection is withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Meyer et al., US 6,041,304. The managing of the insurance policies are deemed direct sales screening processes.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Witala et al, US 6,029,144.

Witala discloses, e.g. Figs. 3A, 8, a global network compliance system where fields 18 of regulatory matters regarding chemical compliance are integrated with existing and new screening processes to comply with the regulatory matters to limit commercial risk. Witala does not explicitly use the phrase direct sales screening processes and new screening processes. To have provided such for Witala would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art. Doing such would incorporate common knowledge business acumen when implementing update business schemes. The motivation for doing such would have been in compliance with legal mandates imposed upon the chemical industry. Regarding the legal terms and definitions, these are inherent with a chemical compliance system. Regarding the dependent claims 2-10, the use of common knowledge tools to minimize commercial risk, e.g. using e-mail, public folders, developing credit worthiness, etc., would have been an obvious use of notoriously well known and common knowledge business work tools to implement environmental legal policy compliance used in both domestic and international trade regulations.

6. A further pertinent reference of interest is noted on the attached PTO-892.
